Thriving with Cerebral Palsy: The Cordell Brown Story

Directed By: Tina Johns

Runtime: 42 Minutes

This inspirational documentary is the story of “an ordinary man who has done extraordinary things”. Were it not for the guidance of a summer camp director and the support of family, friends, and the local Lions Club, Camp Echoing Hills and Echoing Hills Village may not have become a reality. Born and raised in Lorain County, Cordell has left his mark on Coshocton County and throughout the state. All screening will be followed by a Q&A with Cordell Brown and Coshocton native, Tina Johns.
